

FACILITATORS

The event will be hosted and introduced by Jane Allen, Chair of Amara Collaboration and Jan Henriksson from Self Leadership.

Dana Carman, a seasoned executive coach and leadership consultant working globally in the frothy spaces between strategy and execution. Dana assists clients in navigating their biggest real world challenges while moving through personal and professional transformation in a unique and personalized way, integrating action and learning simultaneously.

Heidi Gutekunst, co-founder of Amara Collaboration, spent most of her career in advertising in leading positions, among others as a CEO leading an agency through a significant transformation with results in financial performance, employee satisfaction, conquering new offerings, turning customers into accounts and winning both national and international awards for the first time in years. Now a regular speaker at Business Forums interested in her entrepreneurship and transforming ability.

Bill Torbert, senior adviser at Amara Collaboration and Leadership Professor Emeritus at Boston College. Bill was formerly an award winning teacher and scholar at Yale, Harvard and Southern Methodist University. He is an internationally renowned consultant, and author of Action Inquiry: The Secret of Timely and Transforming Leadership as well as Seven Transformations of Leadership selected as the one of the top ten best leadership reads ever by Harvard Business Review.

Hilary Bradbury, Ph.D., (by video). Professor of Organizational Psychology, Hilary is a leader in action research, convening the global network, AR+. Editor of the bestselling Handbooks of Action Research, Hilary's own work and writing integrates Zen and relational psychoanalysis, with druidic flair, to re-imagine the practice of fuller human inter-relating in the boardroom, bedroom and wherever relationship arises. Her most recent book, co-authored with Bill, is Eros/Power: Love in the Spirit of Inquiry (Integral Publishers, 2015).
